PLANNING YOUR EVENT

Simply Divine and Dobbin St will guide you through each step of your event planning process to make sure your experience is easy and stress-free.

STEP 1: INTRODUCTIONS

Contact Simply Divine with the basic details of your event. They will answer your questions and schedule a time for a consultation.

STEP 2: CONSULTATION

Your consultation provides Simply Divine with the opportunity to learn more about you, the details of your event and your tastes and preferences. Don't worry if some things are still up in the air; they are happy to help guide you.

STEP 3: PROPOSAL

Within a week of your consultation, Simply Divine will send you your personalized proposal. It will contain your event details, a selection of menu options and a line item budget chart. You will have a chance to review the proposal and send them your feedback. They will then adjust the proposal based on your needs.

STEP 4: BOOKING

To reserve your date with Simply Divine, they ask for a $5,000 deposit and signed contract. Then they will begin planning your event with you!

SIMPLY DIVINE AT DOBBIN

“We chose Simply Divine for our wedding as we were looking for a kosher caterer with an eye for elegance and sophistication. Judy Marlow, the owner, automatically made us feel at ease and shared suggestions for the day. She is very responsive and flexible. The food was absolutely delicious and the presentation stunning. Her staff was also extremely well prepared and really made our day fabulous. We received so many compliments about the food, staff and decoration on the day. Judy also has an eye for details and knows how to make your ideas come to life. She was extremely helpful (even helped me bustle my dress before the reception and sent snacks and sandwiches to my hotel room when I was getting ready with my bridal party!) and friendly. I would 100% recommend Simply Divine.”
